What is a Teen Academy?

The FBI Teen Academy Program educates high school students about the mission and goals of the FBI. This one day program will also give teens a first hand look of law enforcement as a career choice.

FBI executives and program managers will teach policies and techniques that direct their investigations. Teens will learn about major investigations and participate in a variety of "hands on" exercises that illustrate the duties and responsibilities of the FBI.

Entrance Requirements

Candidates must meet the following criteria:

- U.S. Citizen and residence of Delaware or Maryland.
- 14 to 18 years old at the time of Teen Academy.
- GPA of 2.5 or higher.
- Obtain permission from parent or guardian.
- Obtain reference from school principal, teacher, or guidance counselor.
- Currently enrolled in an accredited high school or home schooled in Delaware or Maryland. Must submit a completed application.
- Complete an application and one page essay.
- Agree to attend the entire day's session.
